Prelude

Chorale Prelude Ich ruf zu dir, Herr Jesu Christ, BWV 639

J.S. Bach (1685-1750)
arr. Ferruccio Busoni (1866-1924)

O Christ, you did no violence yet you were crushed with pain;
 You suffered great injustice to make us whole again.
 As lambs are led to slaughter and sheep in silence wait,
 You gave your life to offer a love that conquers hate.

You gave your life to save us, yet, God, we now confess:
 Forgetting that you love us, we live in hatefulness.
 We tolerate injustice that breaks the human soul;
 We overlook the madness as violence takes its toll.

When children hear the popping of one more fired gun
 And know there is no stopping and look for where to run,
 When workers face oppression, and women face abuse,
 Lord, hear your world's confession, for there is no excuse.

Our games and movies teach us that violence is all right.
 O God, our greed is boundless; our wealth depends on might.
 Our nations' moral failings in politics and war
 All lead to countless killings — to violence you abhor.

The patterns of our violence give shape to all our days,
 Yet you, O God, are gracious; your ways are not our ways.
 Now by your Holy Spirit, we pray you'll make us new,
 Till peace becomes our pattern as we all follow you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

The Collect said by all

Lord Christ, we come to you in deepest despair. As we weep over the dead and injured killed by guns, in anguish, we recognize the blood stains of hatred. We hear the sounds of fear, the echoes of gunshots — once again, once again. Christ, you came to bring us peace. We turn to you in overwhelming sorrow. How can we end this nightmare of violence? How can we build a world of inclusion, of solidarity? Give us the grace to reflect deeply and to work ceaselessly to heal the hearts; to stop the guns; to cherish all God's children. We pray for our nation, may we end the hate; may we end the violence. Amen.

The First Lesson

Jeremiah 31:15

Thus says the Lord: A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation and bitter weeping. Rachel is weeping for her children; she refuses to be comforted for her children, because they are no more.

Psalm Deus, iudicium

Psalm 72:1-3, 12-14

Give the King your justice, O God, *

and your righteousness to the King's Son;

That he may rule your people righteously *

and the poor with justice;

That the mountains may bring prosperity to the people, * and the little hills bring righteousness.

For he shall deliver the poor who cries out in distress, *

and the oppressed who has no helper.

He shall have pity on the lowly and poor; *

he shall preserve the lives of the needy.

He shall redeem their lives from oppression and violence, *

and dear shall their blood be in his sight.

The Second Lesson

Amos 5:21-24

Thus says the Lord to the house of Israel: I hate, I despise your festivals, and I take no delight in your solemn assemblies. Even though you offer me your burnt offerings and grain offerings, I will not accept them; and the offerings of well-being of your fatted animals I will not look upon. Take away from me the noise of your songs; I will not listen to the melody of your harps. But let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

God, We Have Heard It

Herzliebster Jesu

Text by Carolyn Gillette

God, we have heard it, sounding in the silence:
News of the children lost to this world's violence.
Children of promise! Then without a warning,
Loved ones are mourning.

Jesus, you came to bear our human sorrow;
You came to give us hope for each tomorrow.
You are our life, Lord God's own love revealing.
We need your healing!

Heal us from giving weapons any glory;
Help us, O Prince of Peace, to hear your story;
Help us resist the evil all around here;
May love abound here!

By your own Spirit, give your church a clear voice;
In this world's violence, help us make a new choice.
Help us to witness to the joy your peace brings,
Until your world sings!

Offertory Anthem

“Nearer my God to Thee”

Music by Lowell Mason, 1856

Lyrics by Sarah Adams, 1841

Fina Hernandez, soloist

Nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee!

E'en though it be a cross that raiseth me,

Still all my song shall be,

Nearer, my God, to thee;

Nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee!

Though like the wanderer, the sun gone down,

Darkness be over me, my rest a stone;

Yet in my dreams I'd be

Nearer, my God, to thee;

Nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee!

There let the way appear, steps unto heaven;

All that thou send-est me, in mercy given;

Angels to beckon me

Nearer, my God, to thee;

Nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee!

Then, with my waking thoughts bright with Thy praise,

Out of my stony griefs Bethel I'll raise;

So by my woes to be

Nearer, my God, to thee;

Nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee!

Or if, on joyful wing cleaving the sky,

Sun, moon, and stars forgot, upward I fly,

Still all my song shall be,

Nearer, my God, to thee;

Nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee!

The Great Thanksgiving (Eucharistic Prayer A)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth through Jesus Christ our Lord; who rose victorious from the dead, and comforts us with the blessed hope of everlasting life. For to your faithful people, O Lord, life is changed, not ended; and when our mortal body lies in death, there is prepared for us a dwelling place eternal in the heavens.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly,
 ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

The people stand or kneel.

Then the Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you; This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him, Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By Him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Prayer after Communion Celebrant and People

O God, you made us in your image and redeemed us through Jesus your son: Look with compassion on the whole human family; take away the arrogance and hatred which infect our hearts; break down the walls that separate us; unite us in bonds of love; and work through our struggle and confusion to accomplish your purposes on earth; that in your good time, all nations, races, and creeds may serve you in harmony. Amen.

Blessing

And now, may the Lord torment us.

May the Lord keep before us the faces of the hungry, the lonely, the rejected, and the despised.

May the Lord afflict us with pain for the hurt, the wounded, the oppressed, the abused, the victims of violence.

May God grace us with agony, a burning thirst for justice and righteousness.

May God give us courage and strength and compassion to make our nation a better nation, to make our community a better community, to make our church a better church.

And may we do our best to make it so, and after we have done our best, may God give us peace. Amen.

About the Litany in the Wake of a Mass Shooting

Following the murder of 13 precious children of God in Thousand Oaks, California in November 2018, Episcopal Bishops United Against Gun Violence offered a "Litany in the Wake of a Mass Shooting" to commemorate the dead, to comfort their loved ones, and to honor survivors and first responders. This week, the litany has been updated to include yet another mass shooting that took the lives of 21 precious children of God in Uvalde, Texas. We offer this litany, once again, with the reminder that one does not pray in lieu of summoning political courage, but in preparation for doing so. Bishops United Against Gun Violence invite you to join in this litany and our commitment to take action so that our country can be freed from the epidemic of gun violence.

The bishops' litany is long, but it is far from comprehensive. In 2021 there were 693 mass shootings (at least four people injured or killed) in the United States. That year there were 20,726 gun deaths, excluding suicides. In 2020 there were 24,292 gun-related suicides. Last year 18.8 million guns were legally sold in this country.

About the Hymns

The texts for our first two hymns today were written by the Rev. Carolyn Winfrey Gillette, a Presbyterian minister who writes new hymn texts to well-known tunes. She is the associate pastor of First Presbyterian Union Church in Owego, New York.

About the Flowers and Stole

Our flowers today, arranged by Claudia Gimson and Suzanne Van de Mark, are 21 orange blossoms, one for each of those killed at Robb Elementary School in Uvalde, Texas. Orange has become a color connected to grief over mass shootings. Hunters wear orange so that other hunters won't shoot them. Tricia's orange stole was made by Colleen Hintz, who has made many of our liturgical banners. The stole is made to wear after in services after a mass shooting.
